

Terms of Service

Effective 8 August 2026 · The Loyalty Loop

1. Who these Terms apply to

These Terms of Service ("Terms") govern your access to and use of The Loyalty Loop, including our website, mobile applications, and the loyalty-card services we provide (together, the "Service"). They apply to everyone who creates an account or otherwise uses the Service, whether as a customer collecting stamps or points, a business owner running a loyalty programme, a staff member working at a participating shop, or a platform administrator.

By creating an account or using the Service you agree to be bound by these Terms. If you do not agree, please do not use the Service. Business owners are additionally bound by our Merchant Agreement and Data Processing Addendum, which form part of these Terms where applicable.

2. What the Service does

The Loyalty Loop lets local shops run digital stamp, points, or visit-based loyalty programmes. Customers join a shop's loyalty card, collect stamps or points when they visit, and redeem rewards once they reach the shop's chosen threshold. Business owners get a dashboard to manage their programme, invite staff, view analytics, and communicate with their members.

3. Accounts and eligibility

You must provide accurate information when creating an account and keep it up to date. You are responsible for maintaining the confidentiality of your password and for all activity that occurs under your account. You must be at least 16 years old to create an account. If you are creating an account on behalf of a business, you confirm that you are authorised to do so.

Business owner accounts go live immediately on completing onboarding, without a manual approval step. A separate "verified" badge is available on request and is reviewed by our team, but is not required for a shop to operate.

4. Stamps, points and rewards

Stamps, points, tiers, and rewards issued through the Service have no cash value, are not transferable between accounts, and cannot be exchanged for cash. They may be forfeited if your account is closed, if you are found to have engaged in fraudulent activity, or in accordance with the terms set by the participating shop (for example, an expiry period on a specific reward).

Each participating shop sets its own reward catalogue, thresholds, and loyalty type (stamp card, points, or visit-based tiers). We are not responsible for a shop's decision to change its rewards, and shops may cancel their programme at any time; stamps and rewards already earned at that shop may become unusable once it does so.

5. Acceptable use

You agree not to misuse the Service. This includes, without limitation, attempting to claim stamps or rewards you have not genuinely earned, scanning or entering codes that do not belong to you, abusing the referral programme, or interfering with the proper functioning of the Service. Our full list of prohibited conduct is set out in our Acceptable Use Policy, which forms part of these Terms.

6. Reviews and content you submit

If you leave a review, reply, or other content through the Service, you must have genuinely visited or interacted with the relevant shop where required, and your content must be honest, lawful, and not defamatory, harassing, or infringing of anyone else's rights. We may remove content that breaches these Terms and may suspend accounts that repeatedly do so.

You retain ownership of content you submit, but you grant us a licence to host, display, and distribute it as part of operating the Service (for example, showing your review to other customers of that shop).

7. Intellectual property

The Service, including its design, branding, and underlying software, is owned by The Loyalty Loop or our licensors and is protected by intellectual property laws. Nothing in these Terms transfers any of that ownership to you. You may not copy, modify, or reverse-engineer any part of the Service except as permitted by law.

8. Disclaimers and liability

The Service is provided "as is". We do not guarantee that it will be uninterrupted, error-free, or available at all times, and we are not responsible for the acts or omissions of participating shops, including their decisions about rewards, opening hours, or the quality of goods and services they provide.

To the fullest extent permitted by law, The Loyalty Loop will not be liable for any indirect, incidental, or consequential loss arising from your use of the Service. Nothing in these Terms limits liability that cannot be limited under applicable law, including liability for death or personal injury caused by negligence, or for fraud.

9. Suspension and termination

You may stop using the Service and request deletion of your account at any time from your profile settings. We may suspend or terminate your account if you breach these Terms, our Acceptable Use Policy, or applicable law, or if we reasonably believe your account poses a risk to the Service or other users.

10. Changes to these Terms

We may update these Terms from time to time to reflect changes to the Service or for legal or regulatory reasons. Where a change is material, we will make reasonable efforts to notify you before it takes effect. Continued use of the Service after a change takes effect means you accept the updated

Terms.

11. Governing law

These Terms are governed by the laws of England and Wales. Any dispute arising from these Terms or the Service will be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of England and Wales, unless mandatory consumer protection law in your country of residence gives you the right to bring proceedings elsewhere.
